Sir:

COMMENTS REGARDING STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Applicants traverse the reasons for allowance to the extent these reasons are construed to suggest that the claim limitations emphasized therein are the only claim limitations missing from the prior art of record. In addition, to the extent the Examiner's reasons for allowance are (or are construed to be) inconsistent with, add or omit claim limitations, Applicants state that it is the claims that define the invention. Also, to the extent the language of claim 5 reproduced in Statement of Reasons for Allowance is different than language in claims 12, 14, 15, 20, 25 and 30, the Statement of Reasons for Allowance should not be construed as incorporating such different language into these other claims or otherwise limiting these claims in any way.

TAKAHASHI .
